

System Log Success/Failure Events

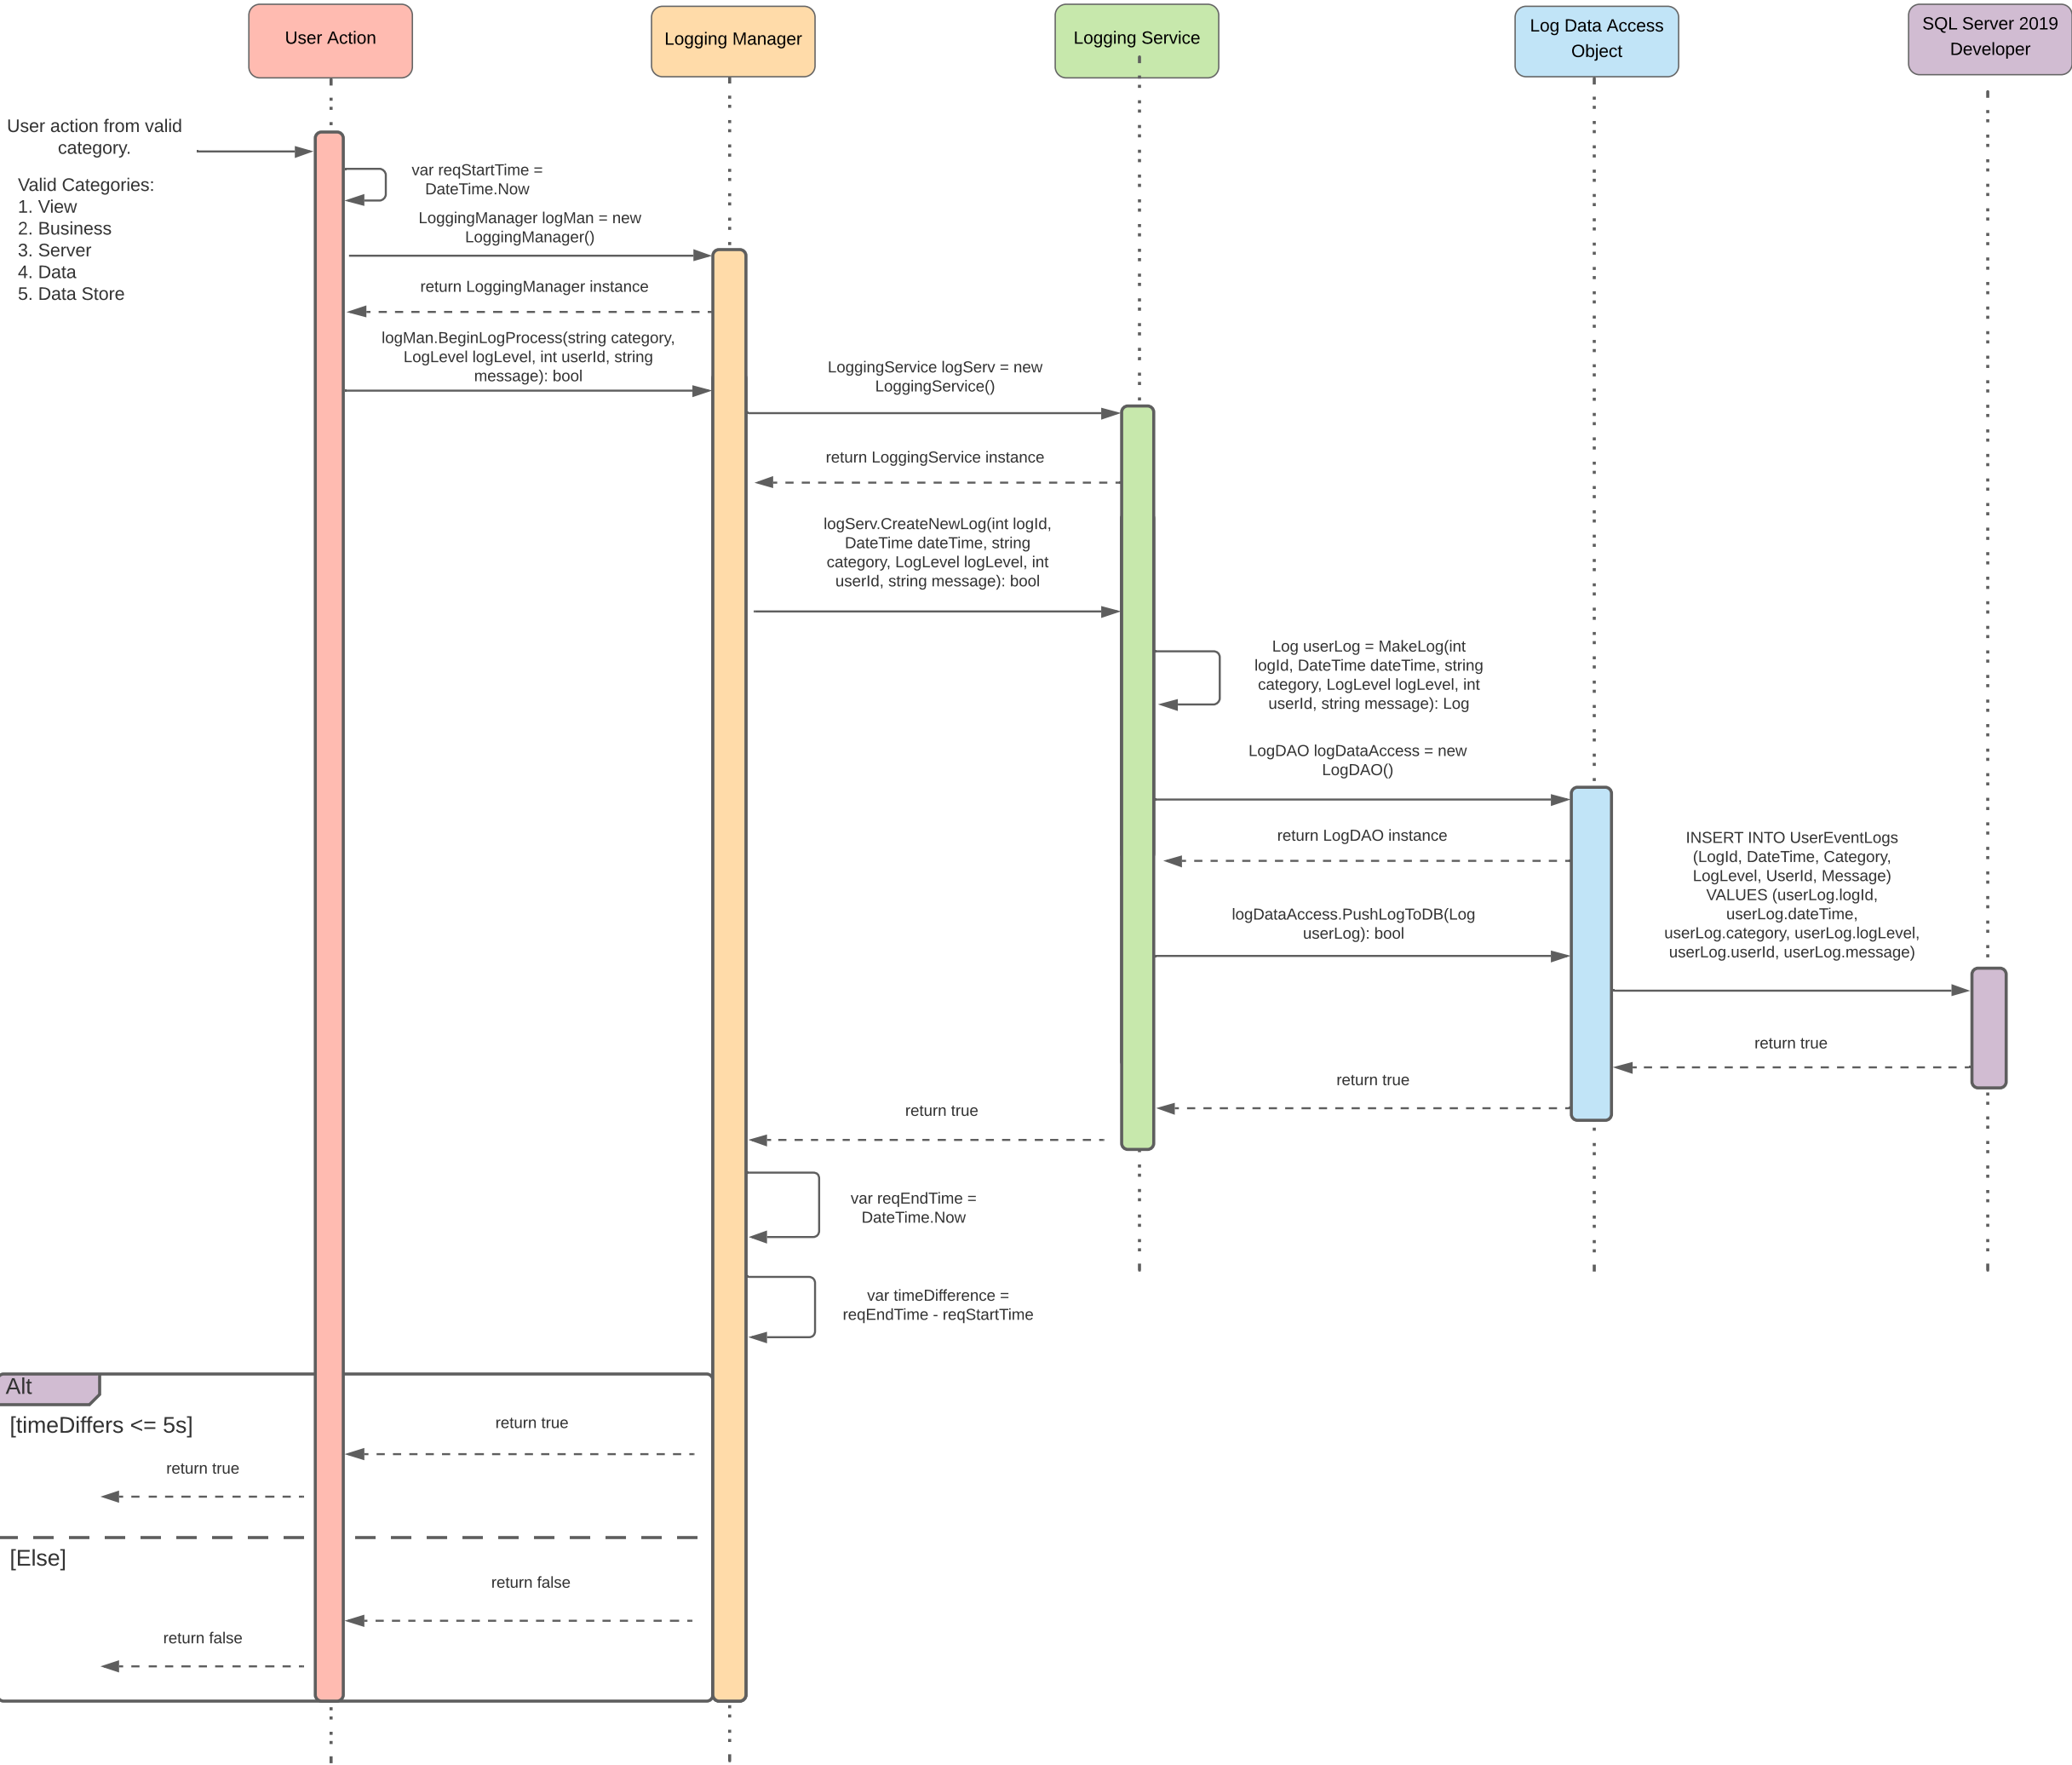

User Log Success/Failure Events

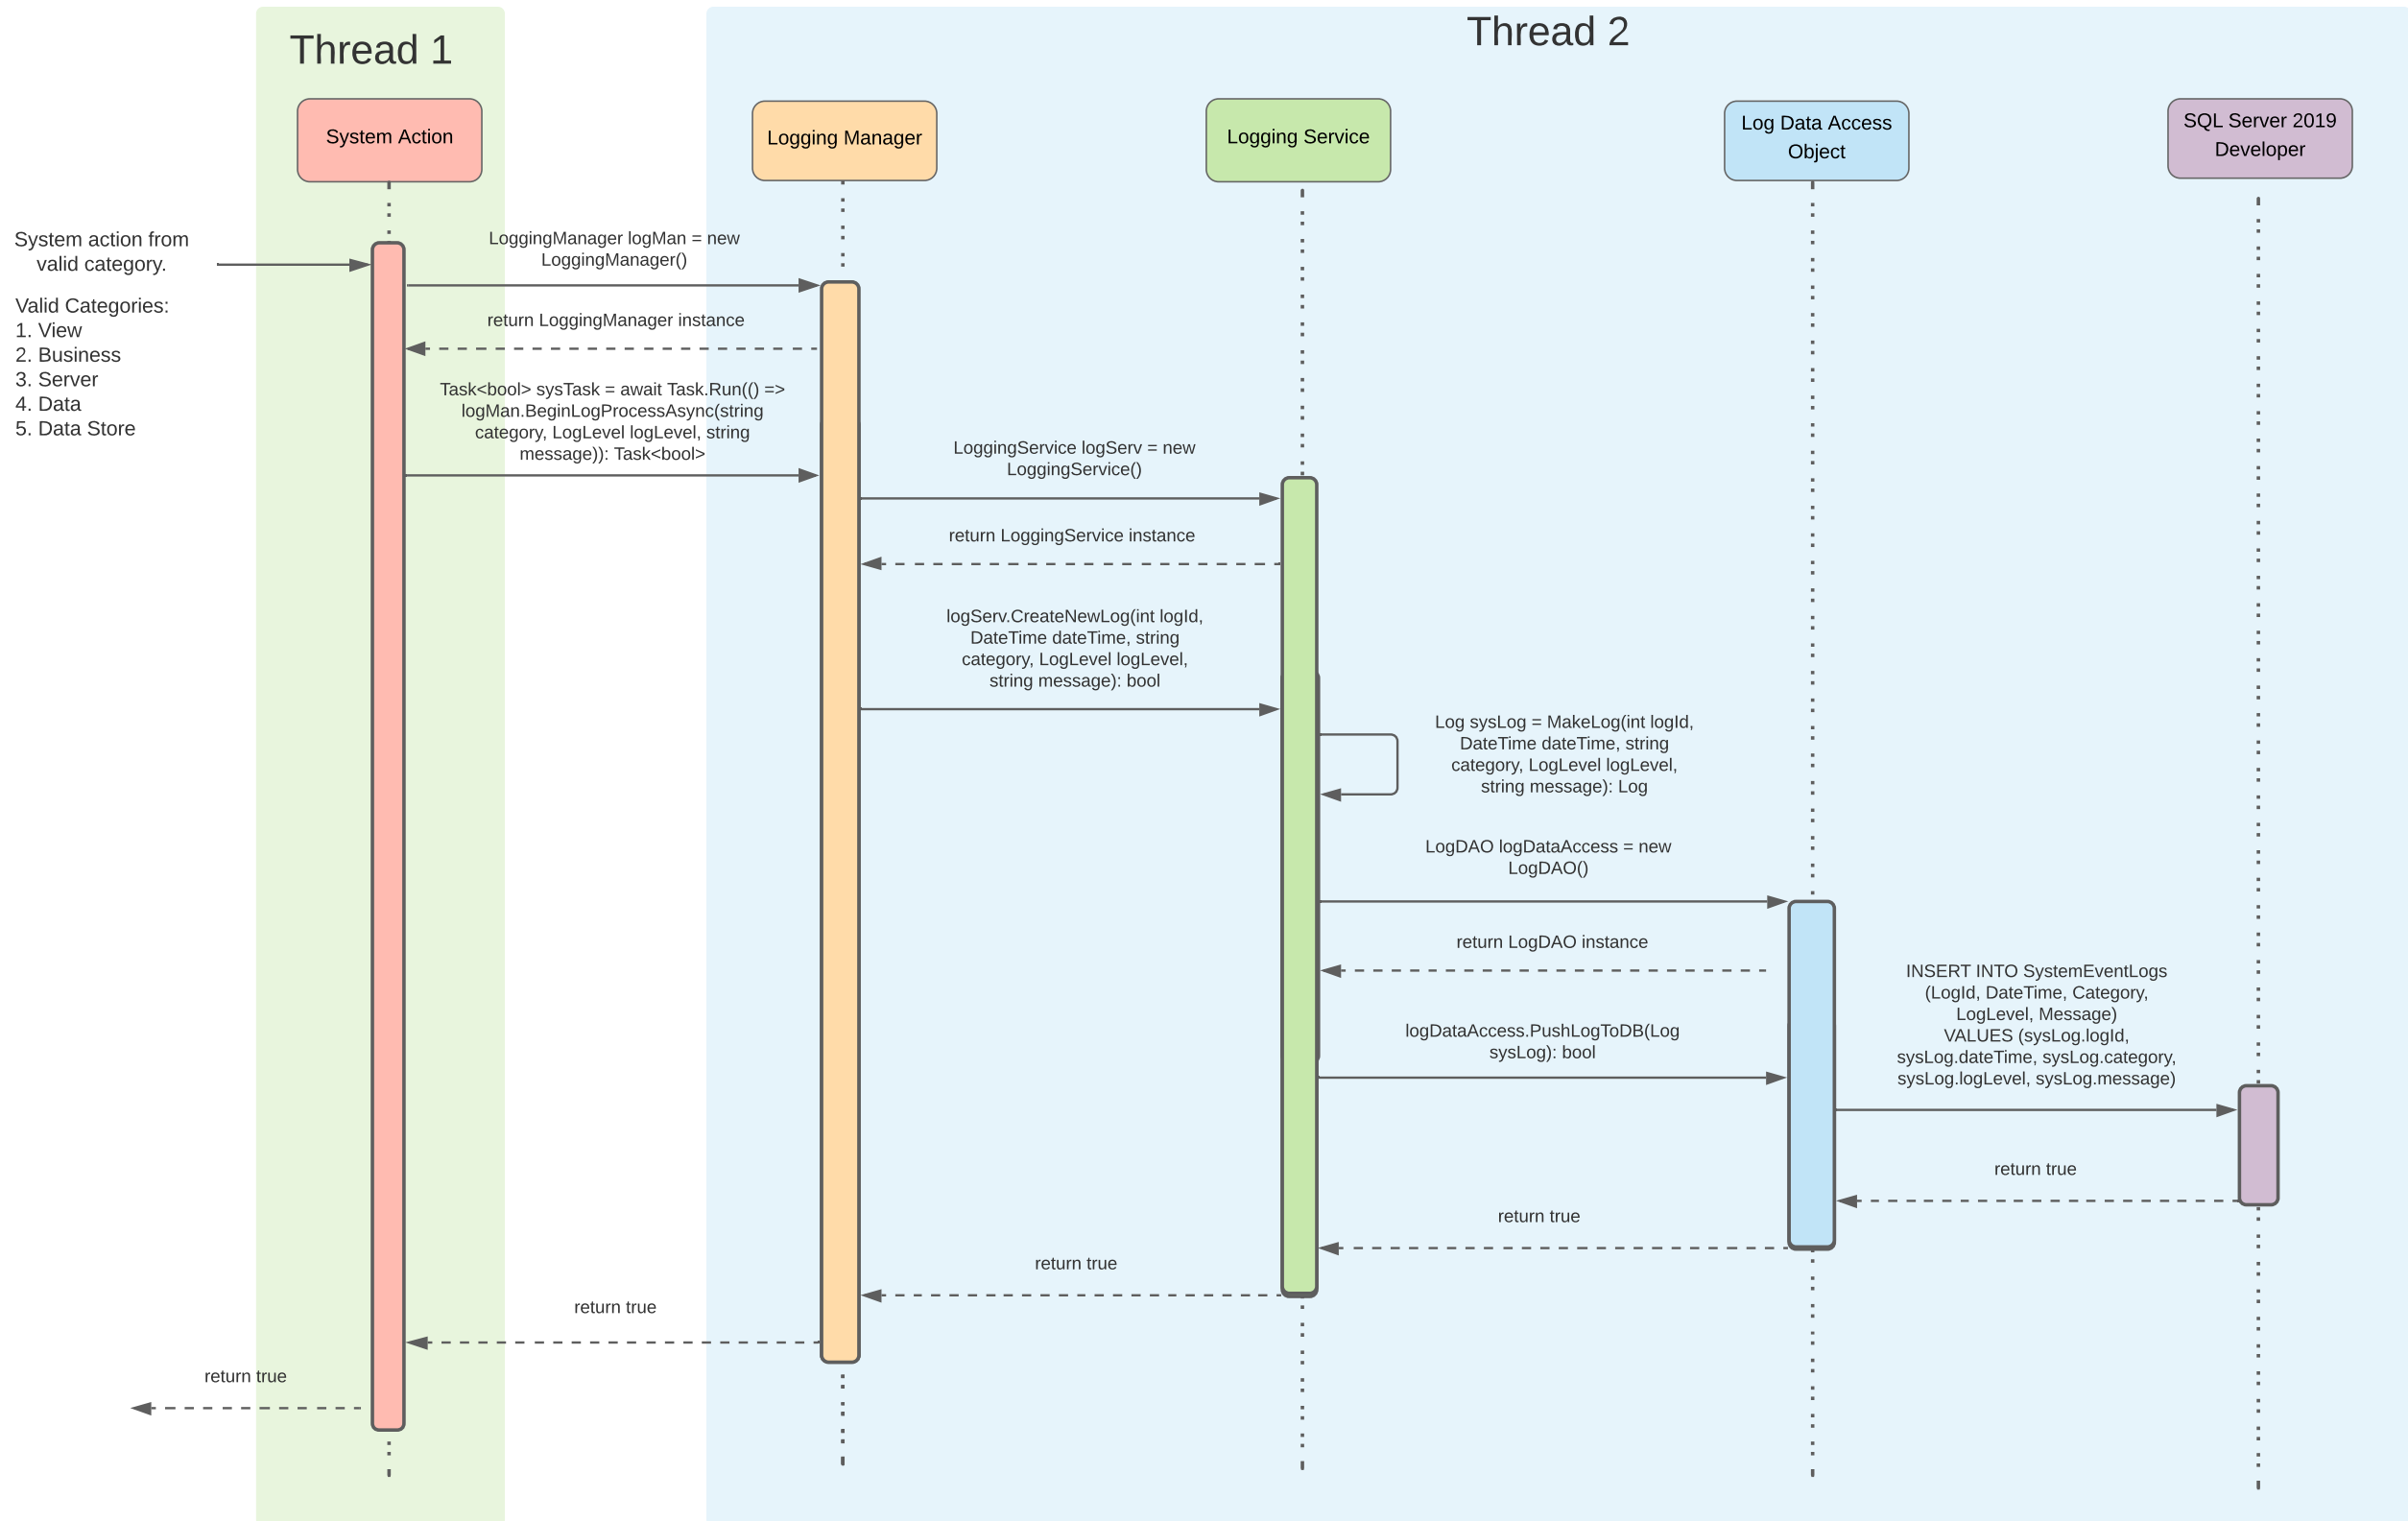

Failure Case 1: The logging process took longer than 5 seconds to complete upon invocation (System Event)

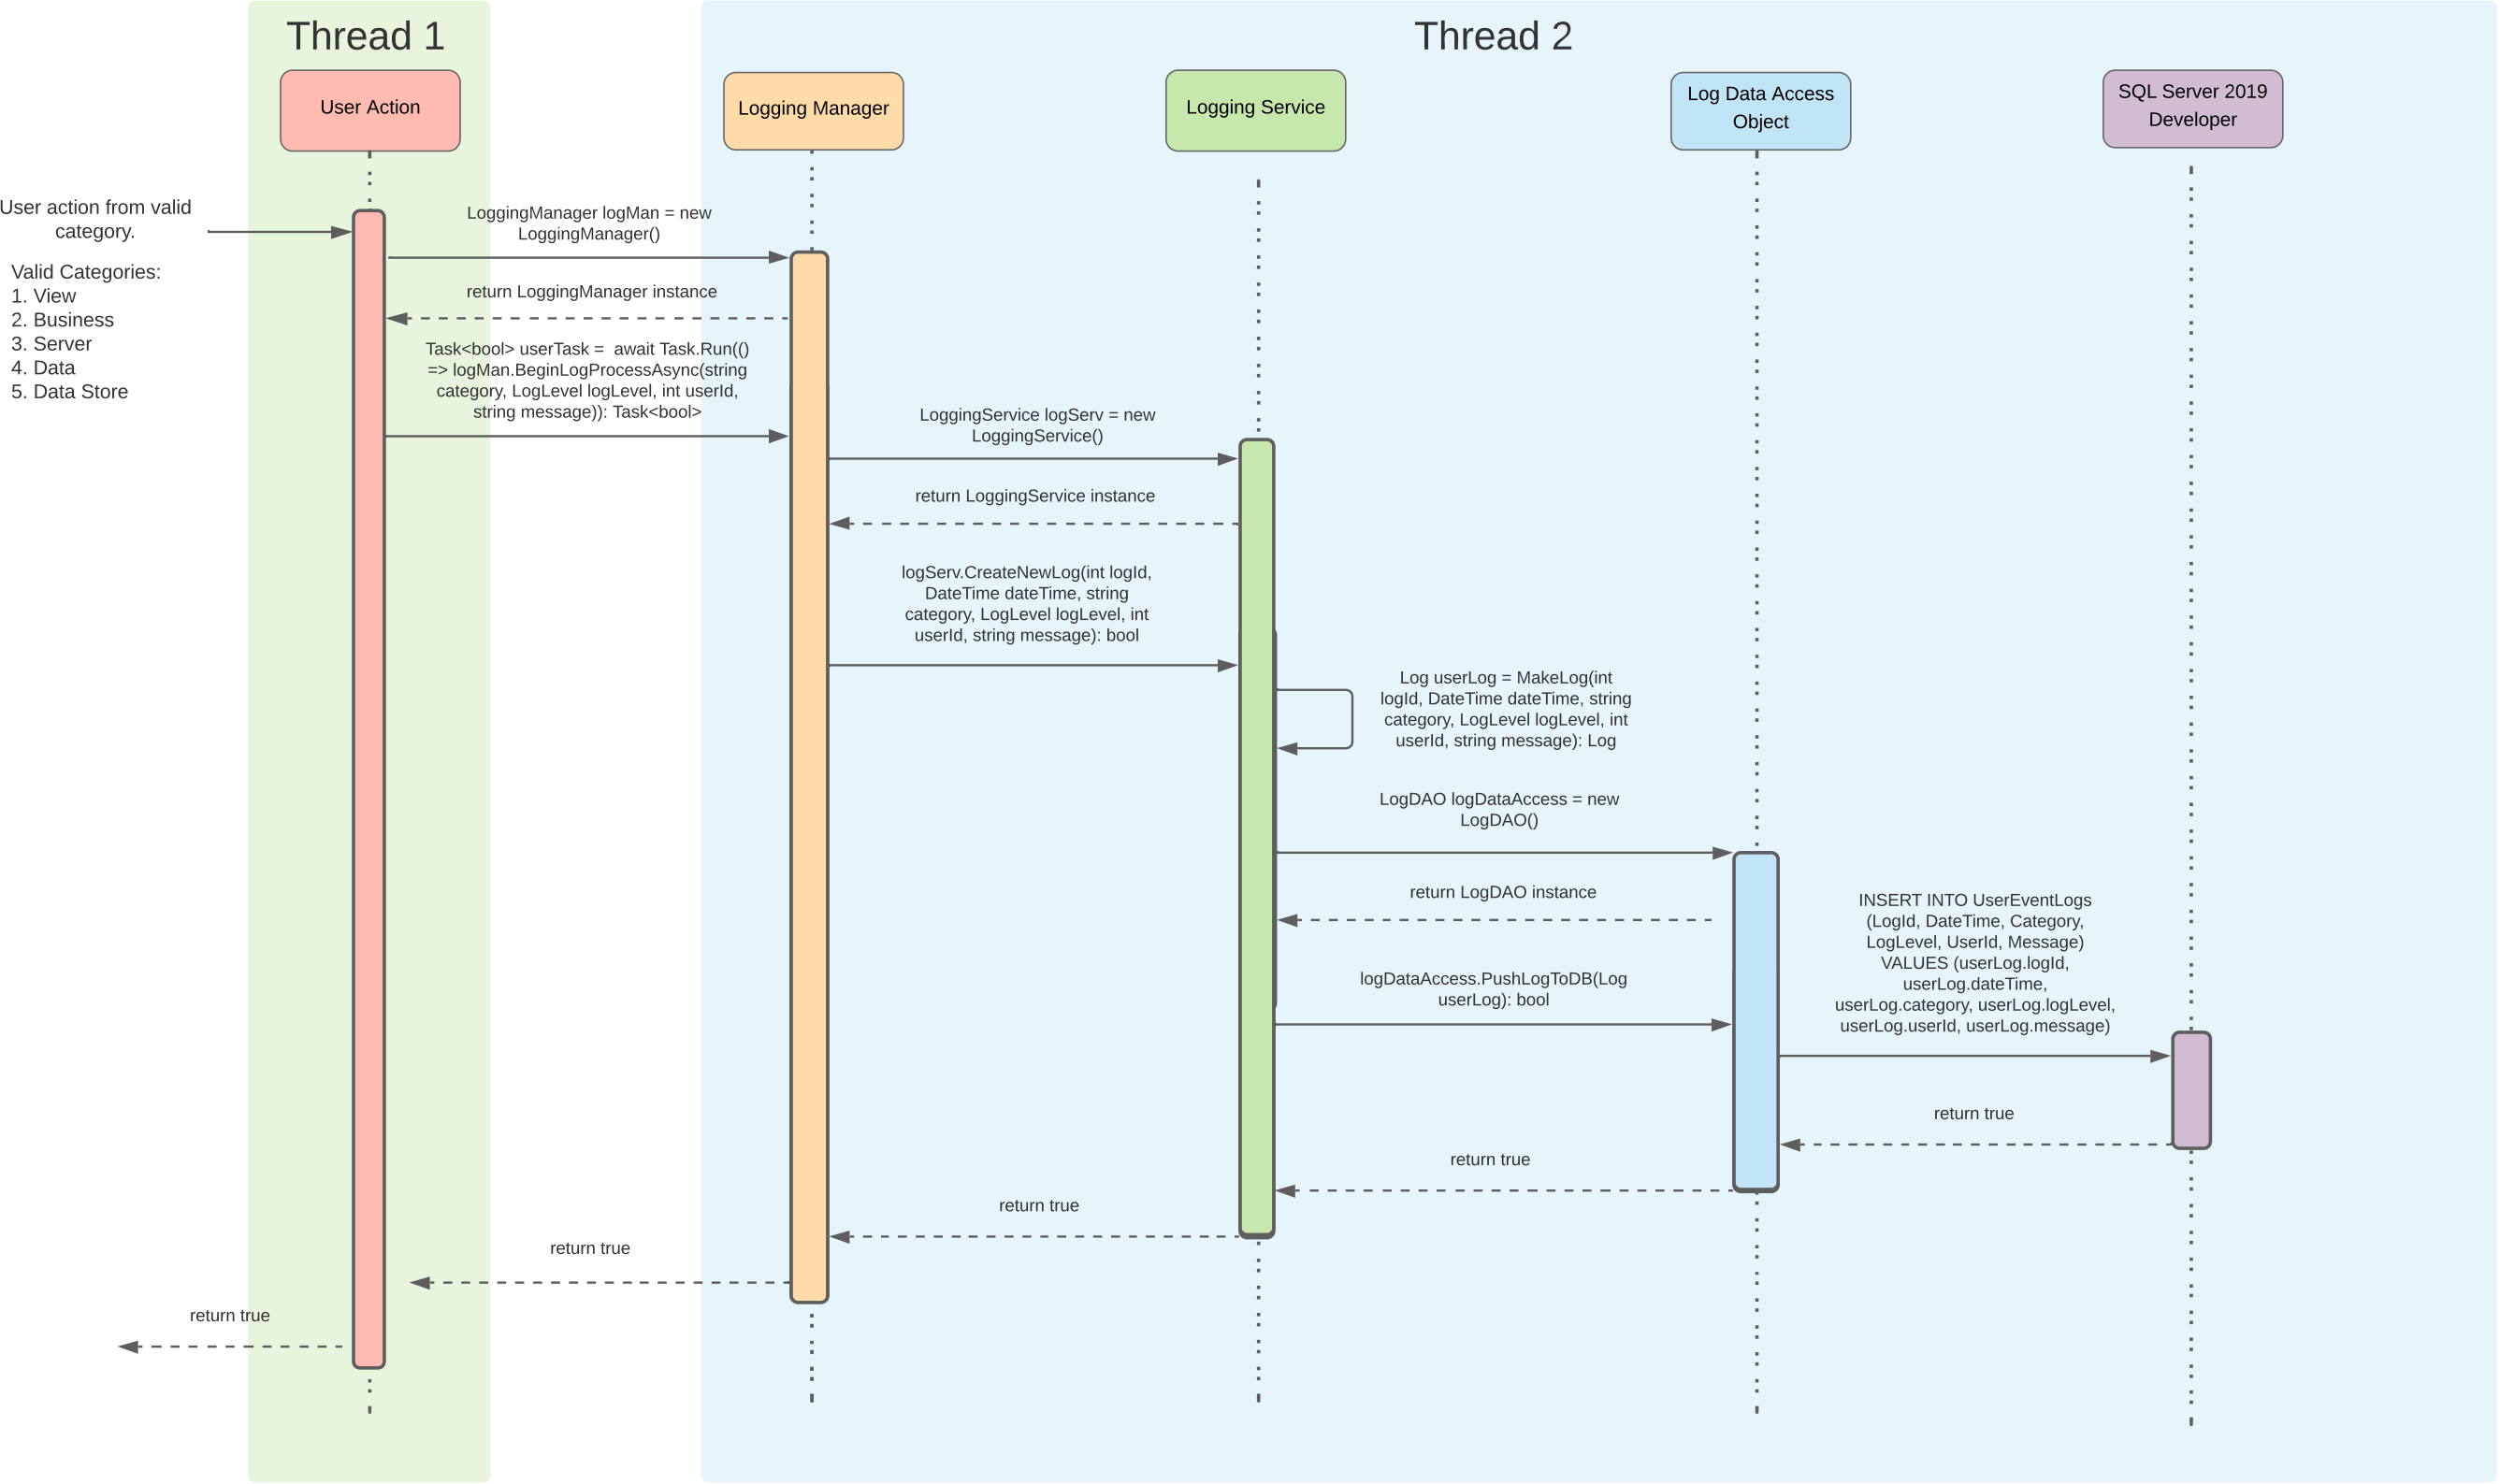

Failure Case 1: The logging process took longer than 5 seconds to complete upon invocation (User Event)

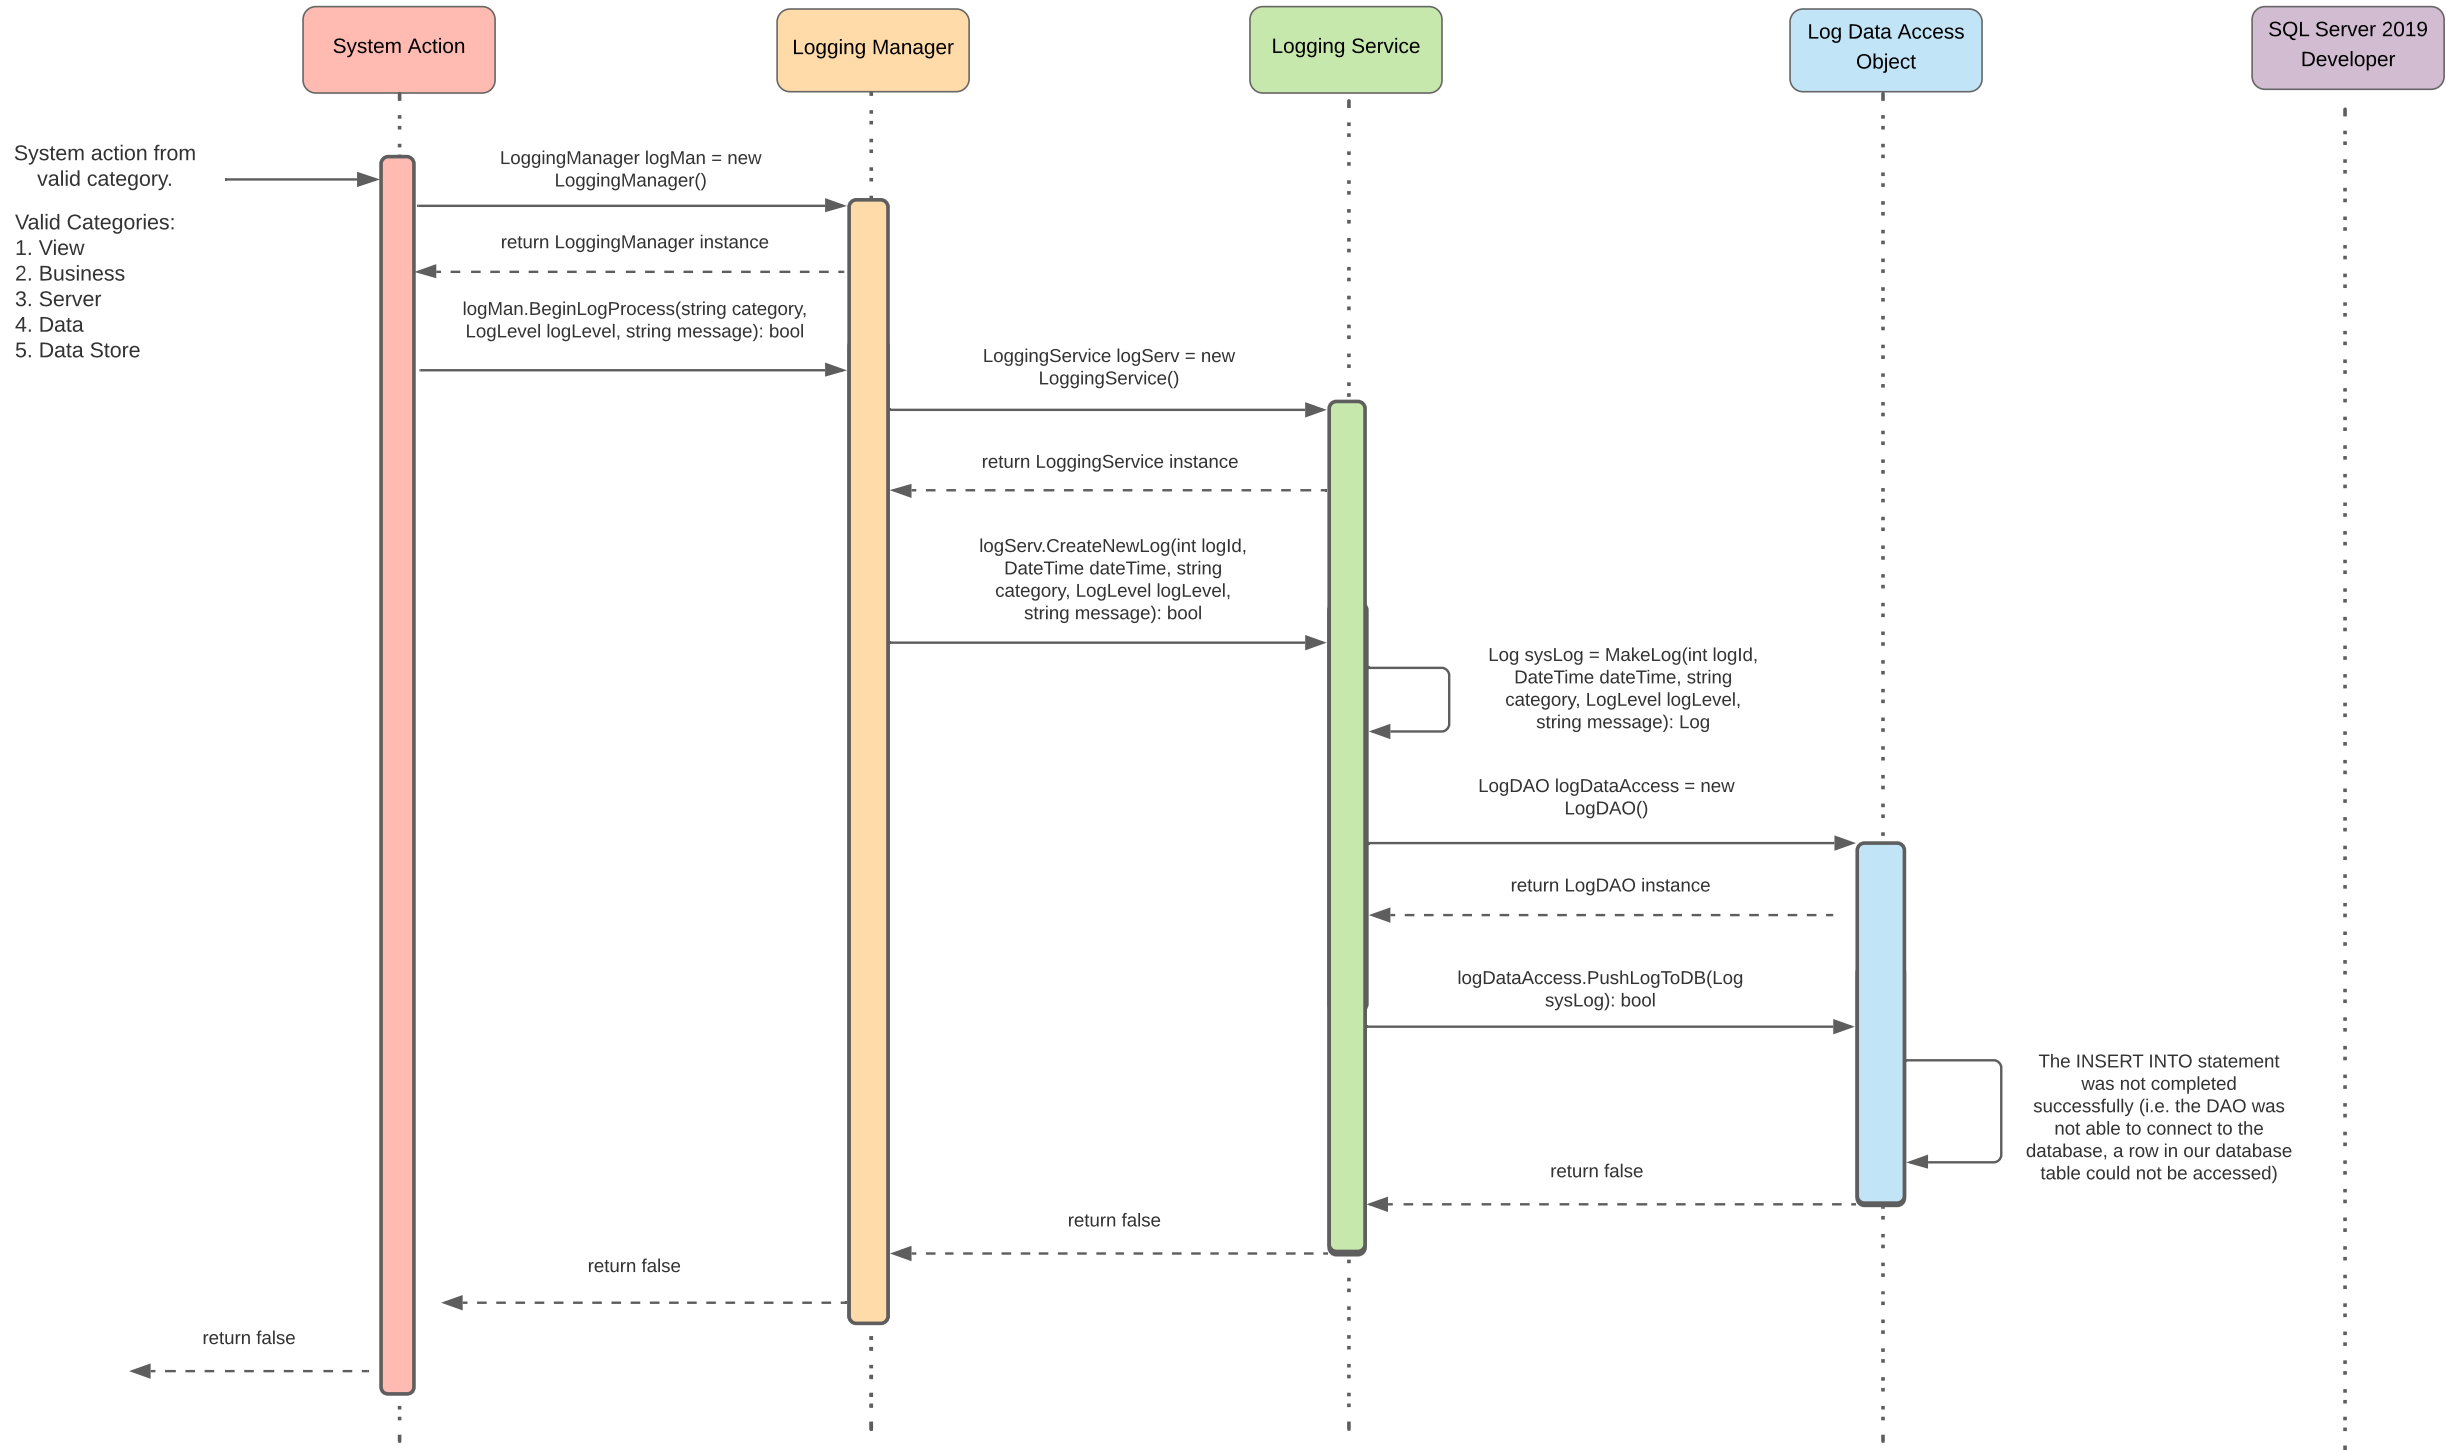

Failure Case 2: The Logging Process Blocks the User From Interacting with the System (System Events)

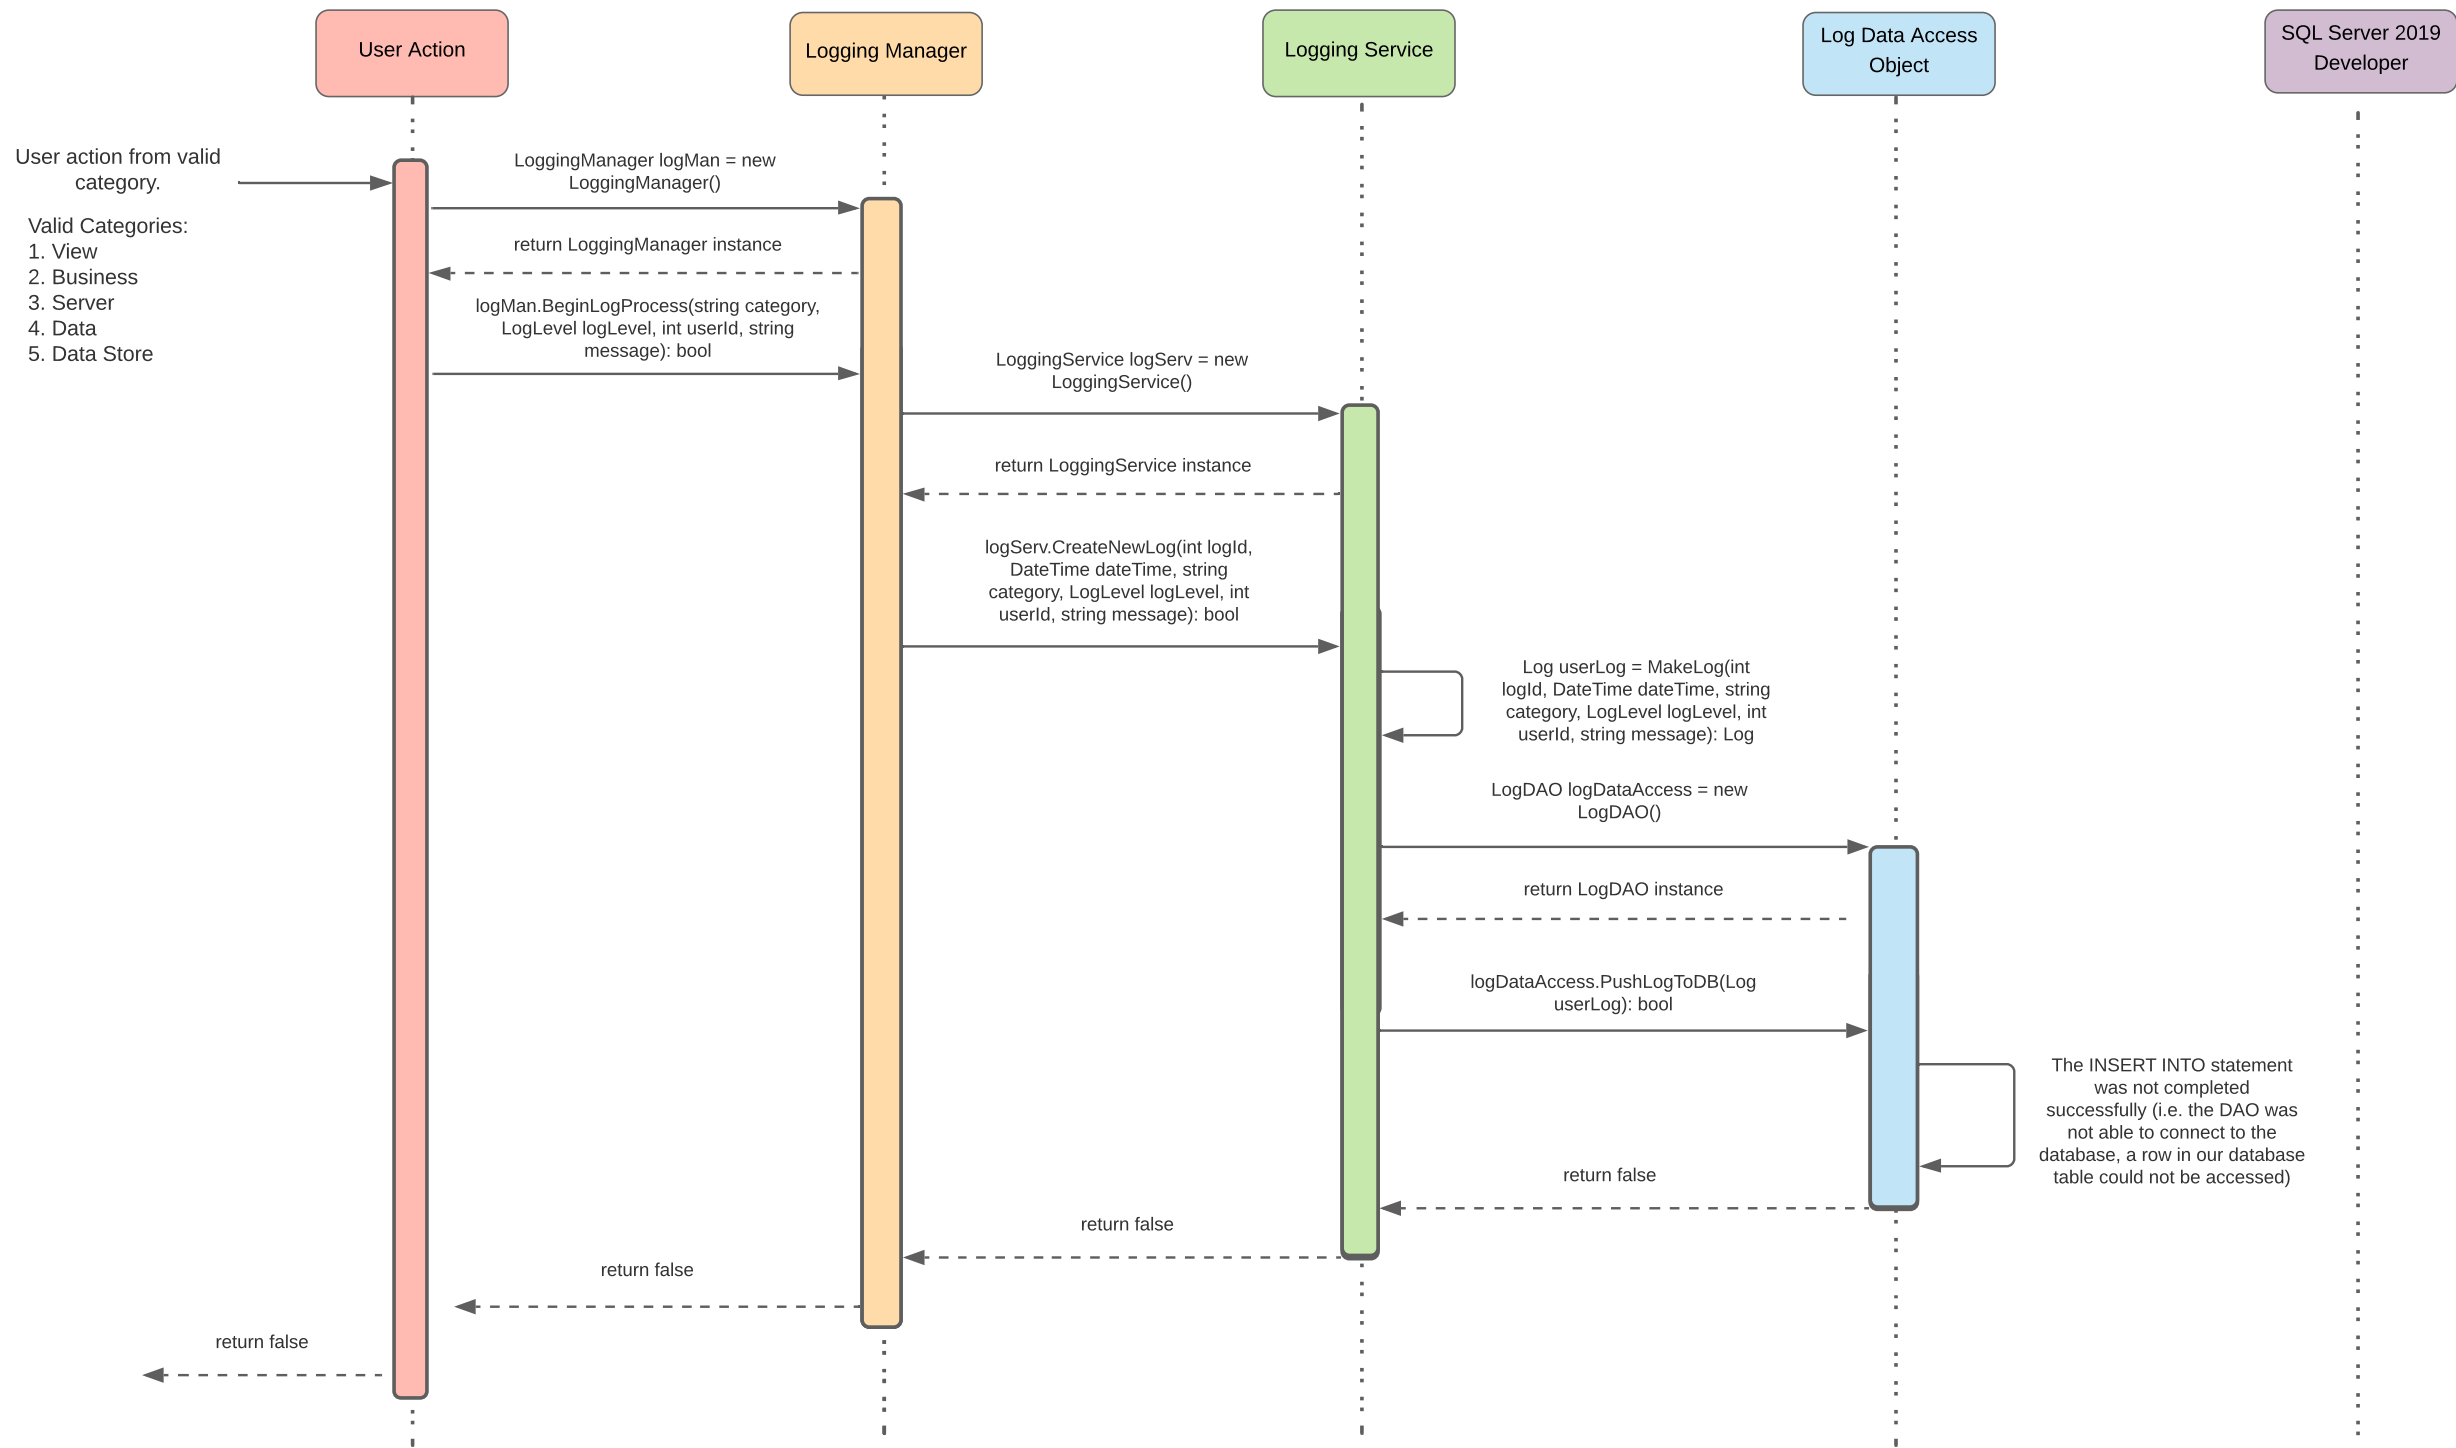

Failure Case 2: The Logging Process Blocks
the User From Interacting with the System
(User Events)

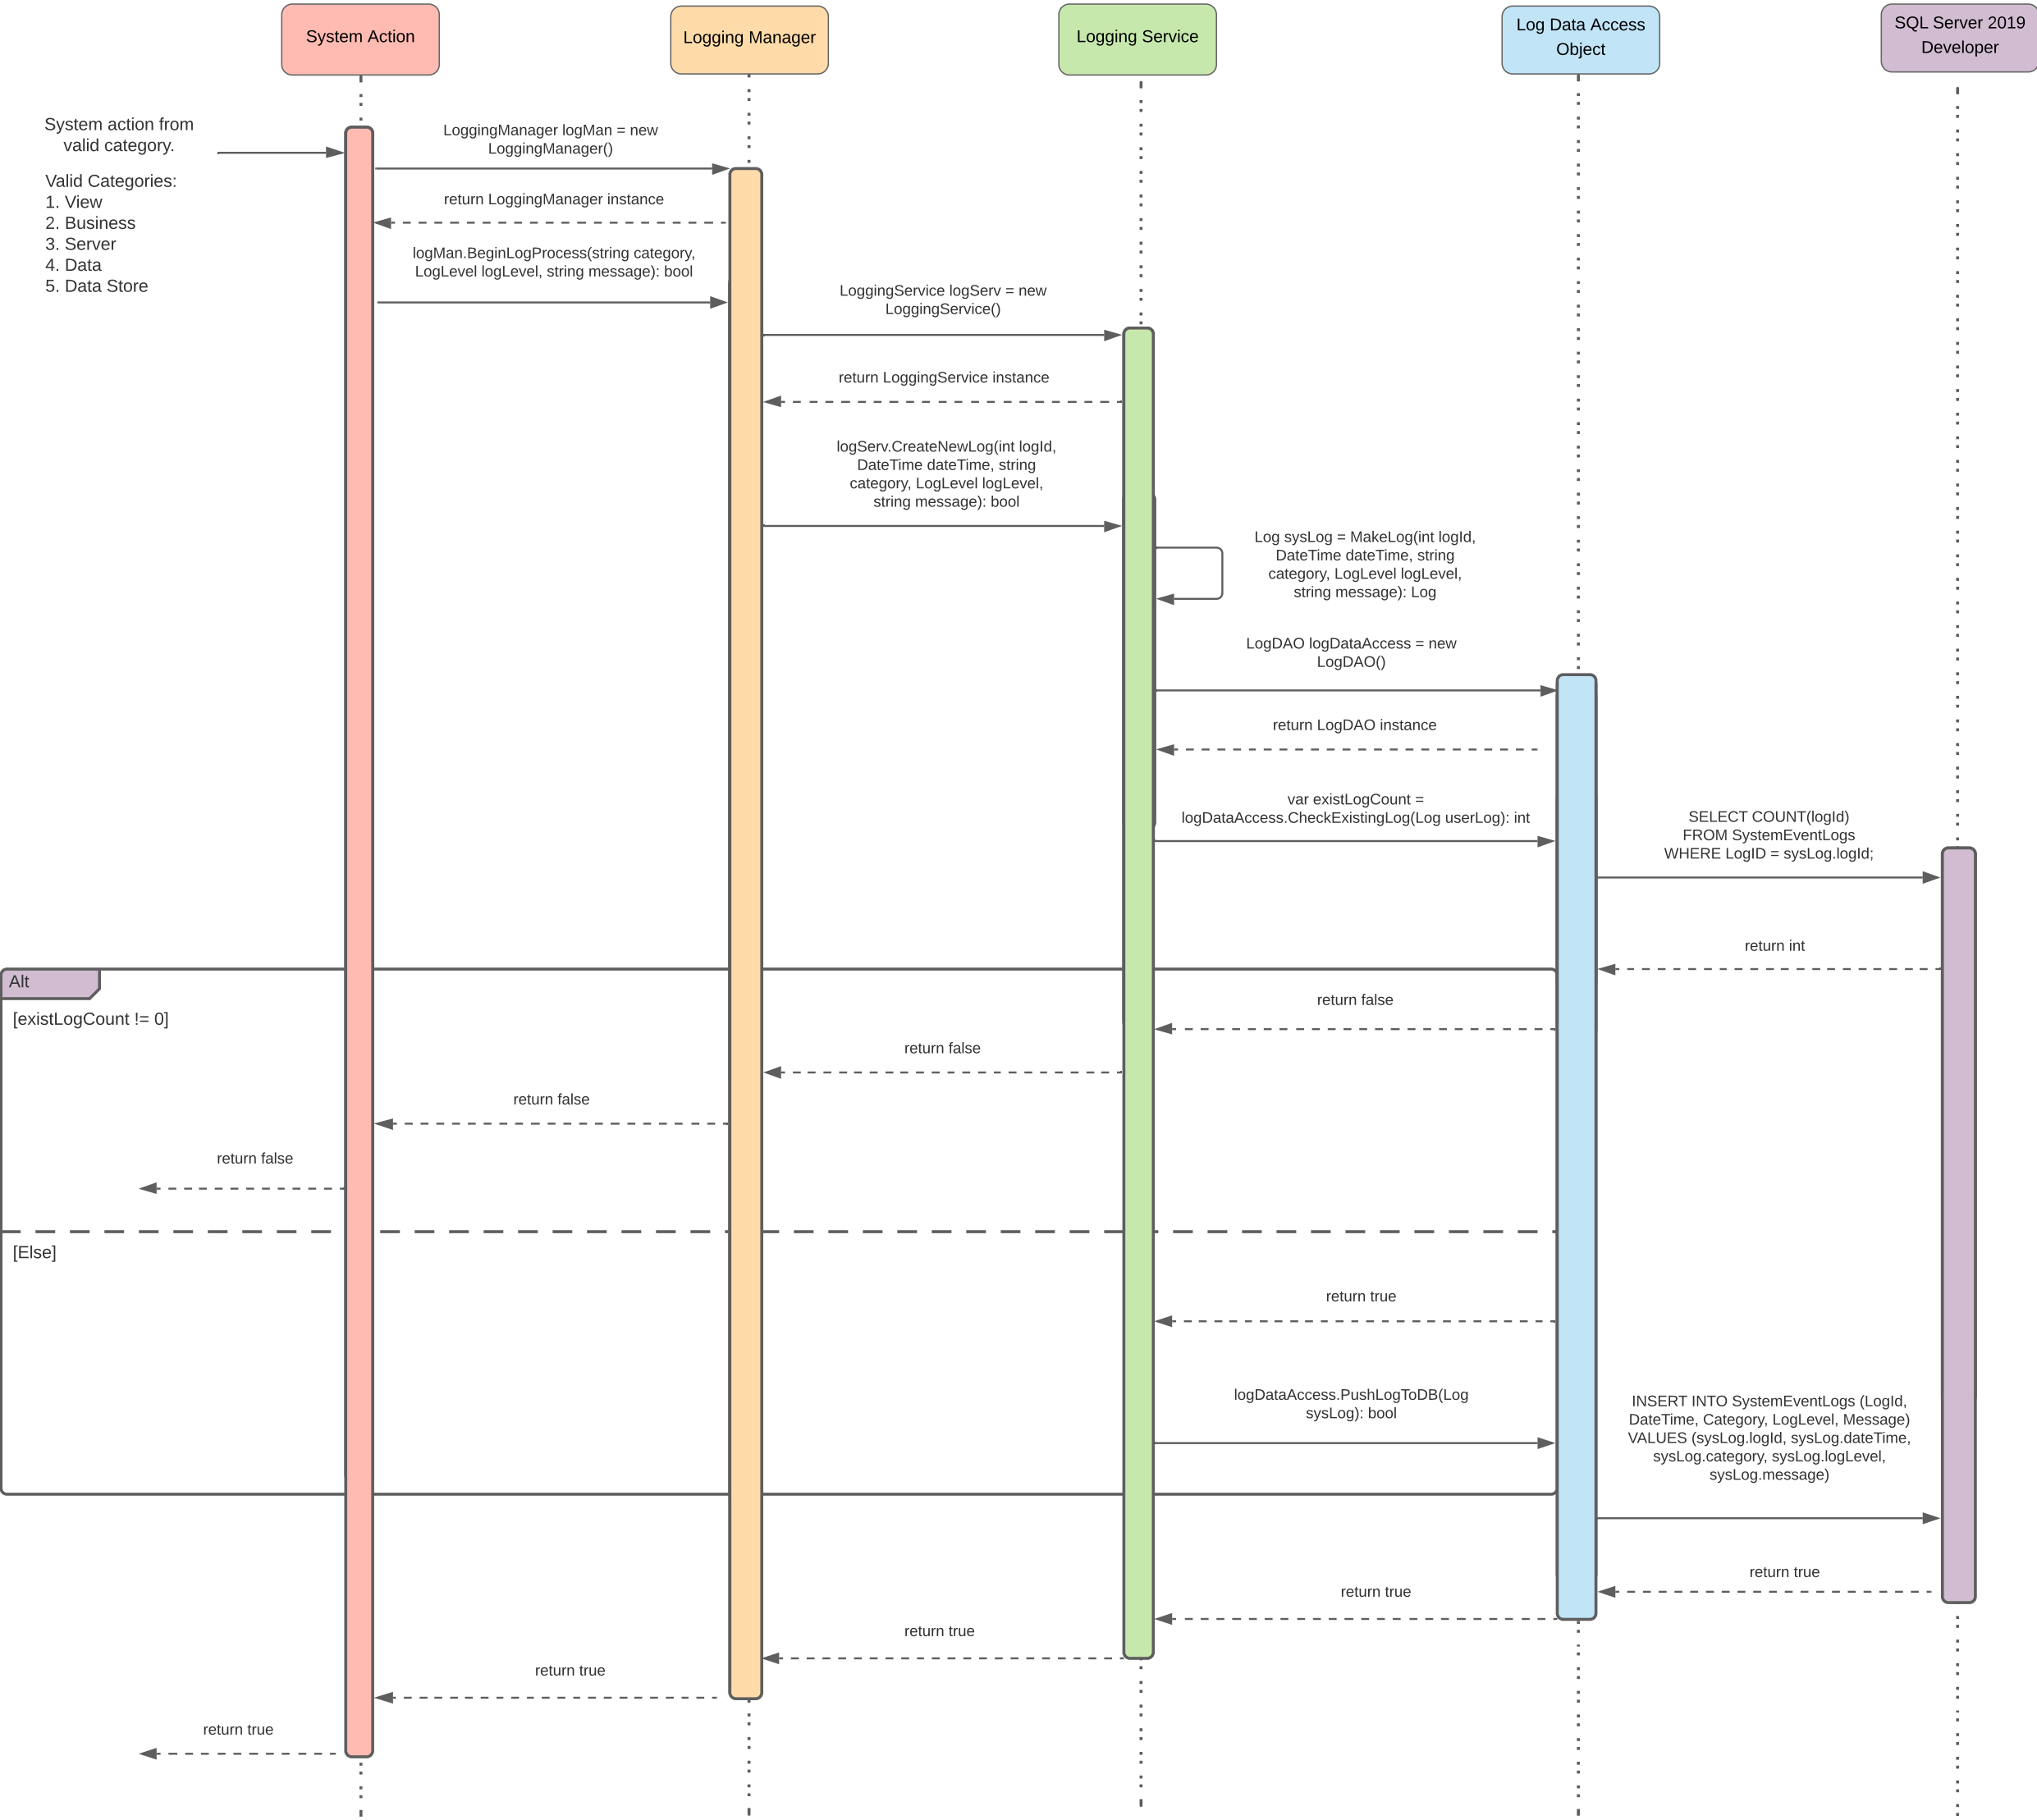

Failure Case 3: The logging process completes within 5 seconds, but did not save to a persistent data store (System Events)

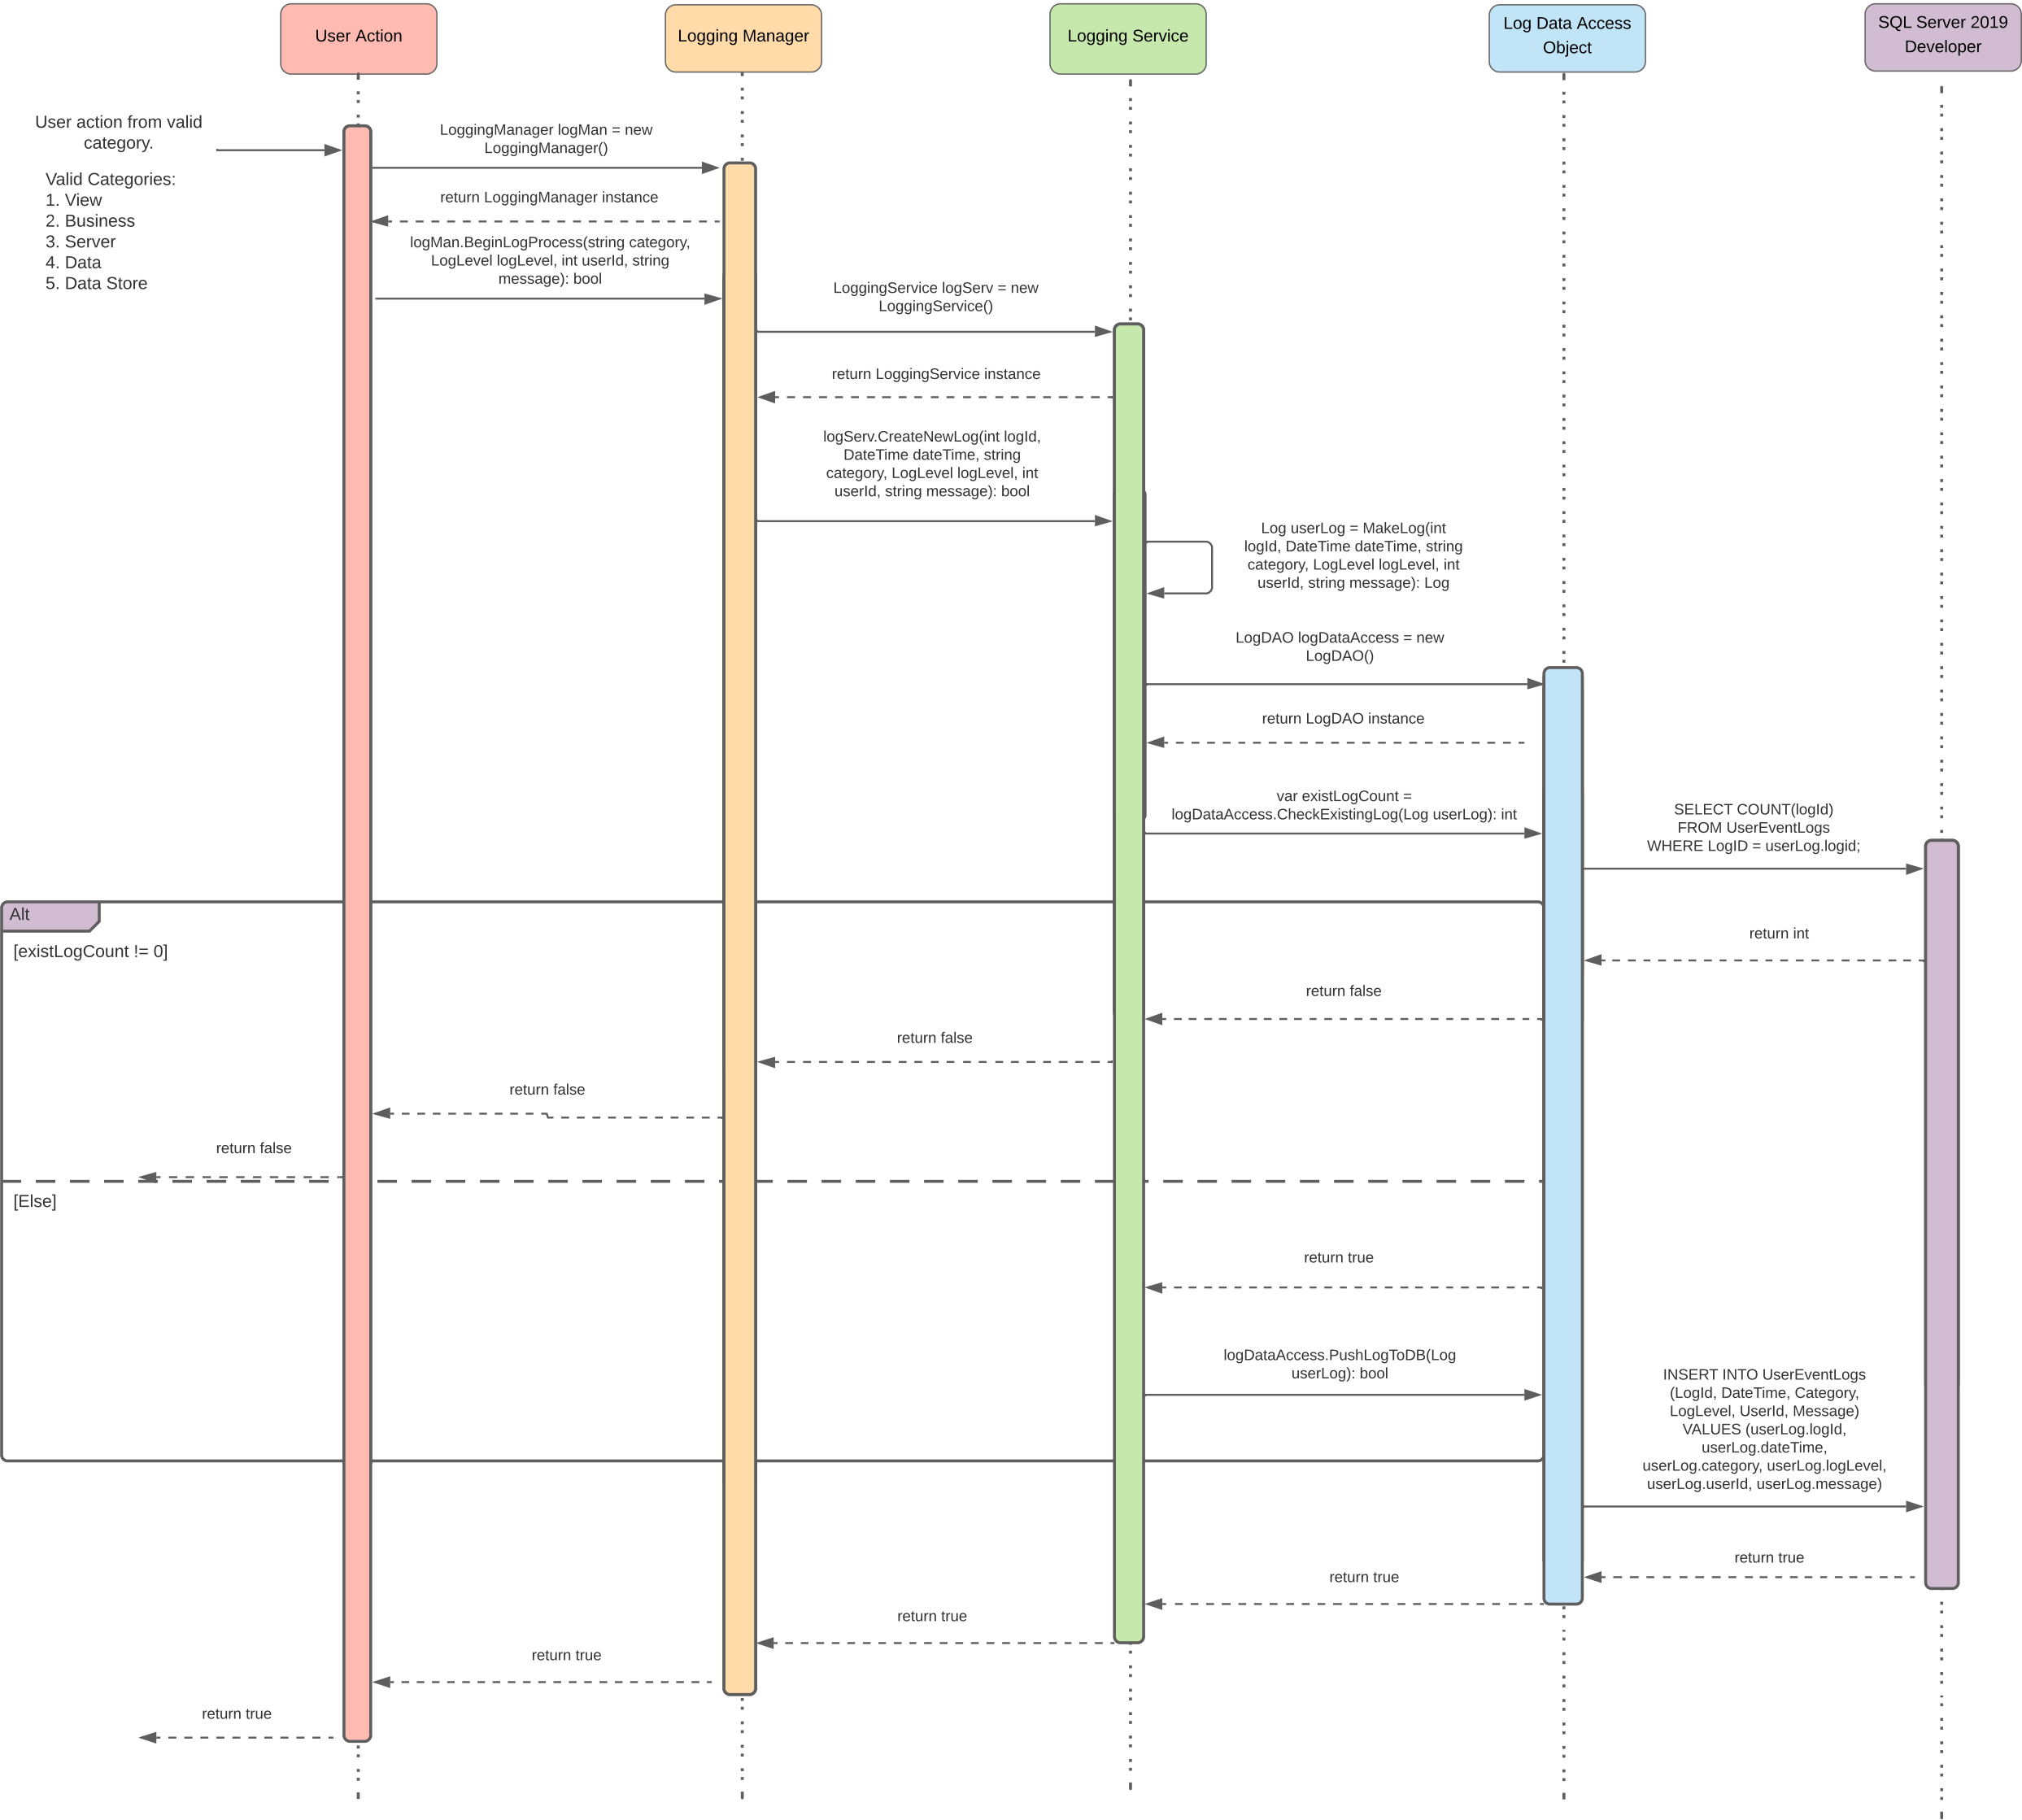

Failure Case 3: The logging process completes within 5 seconds, but did not save to a persistent data store (User Events)

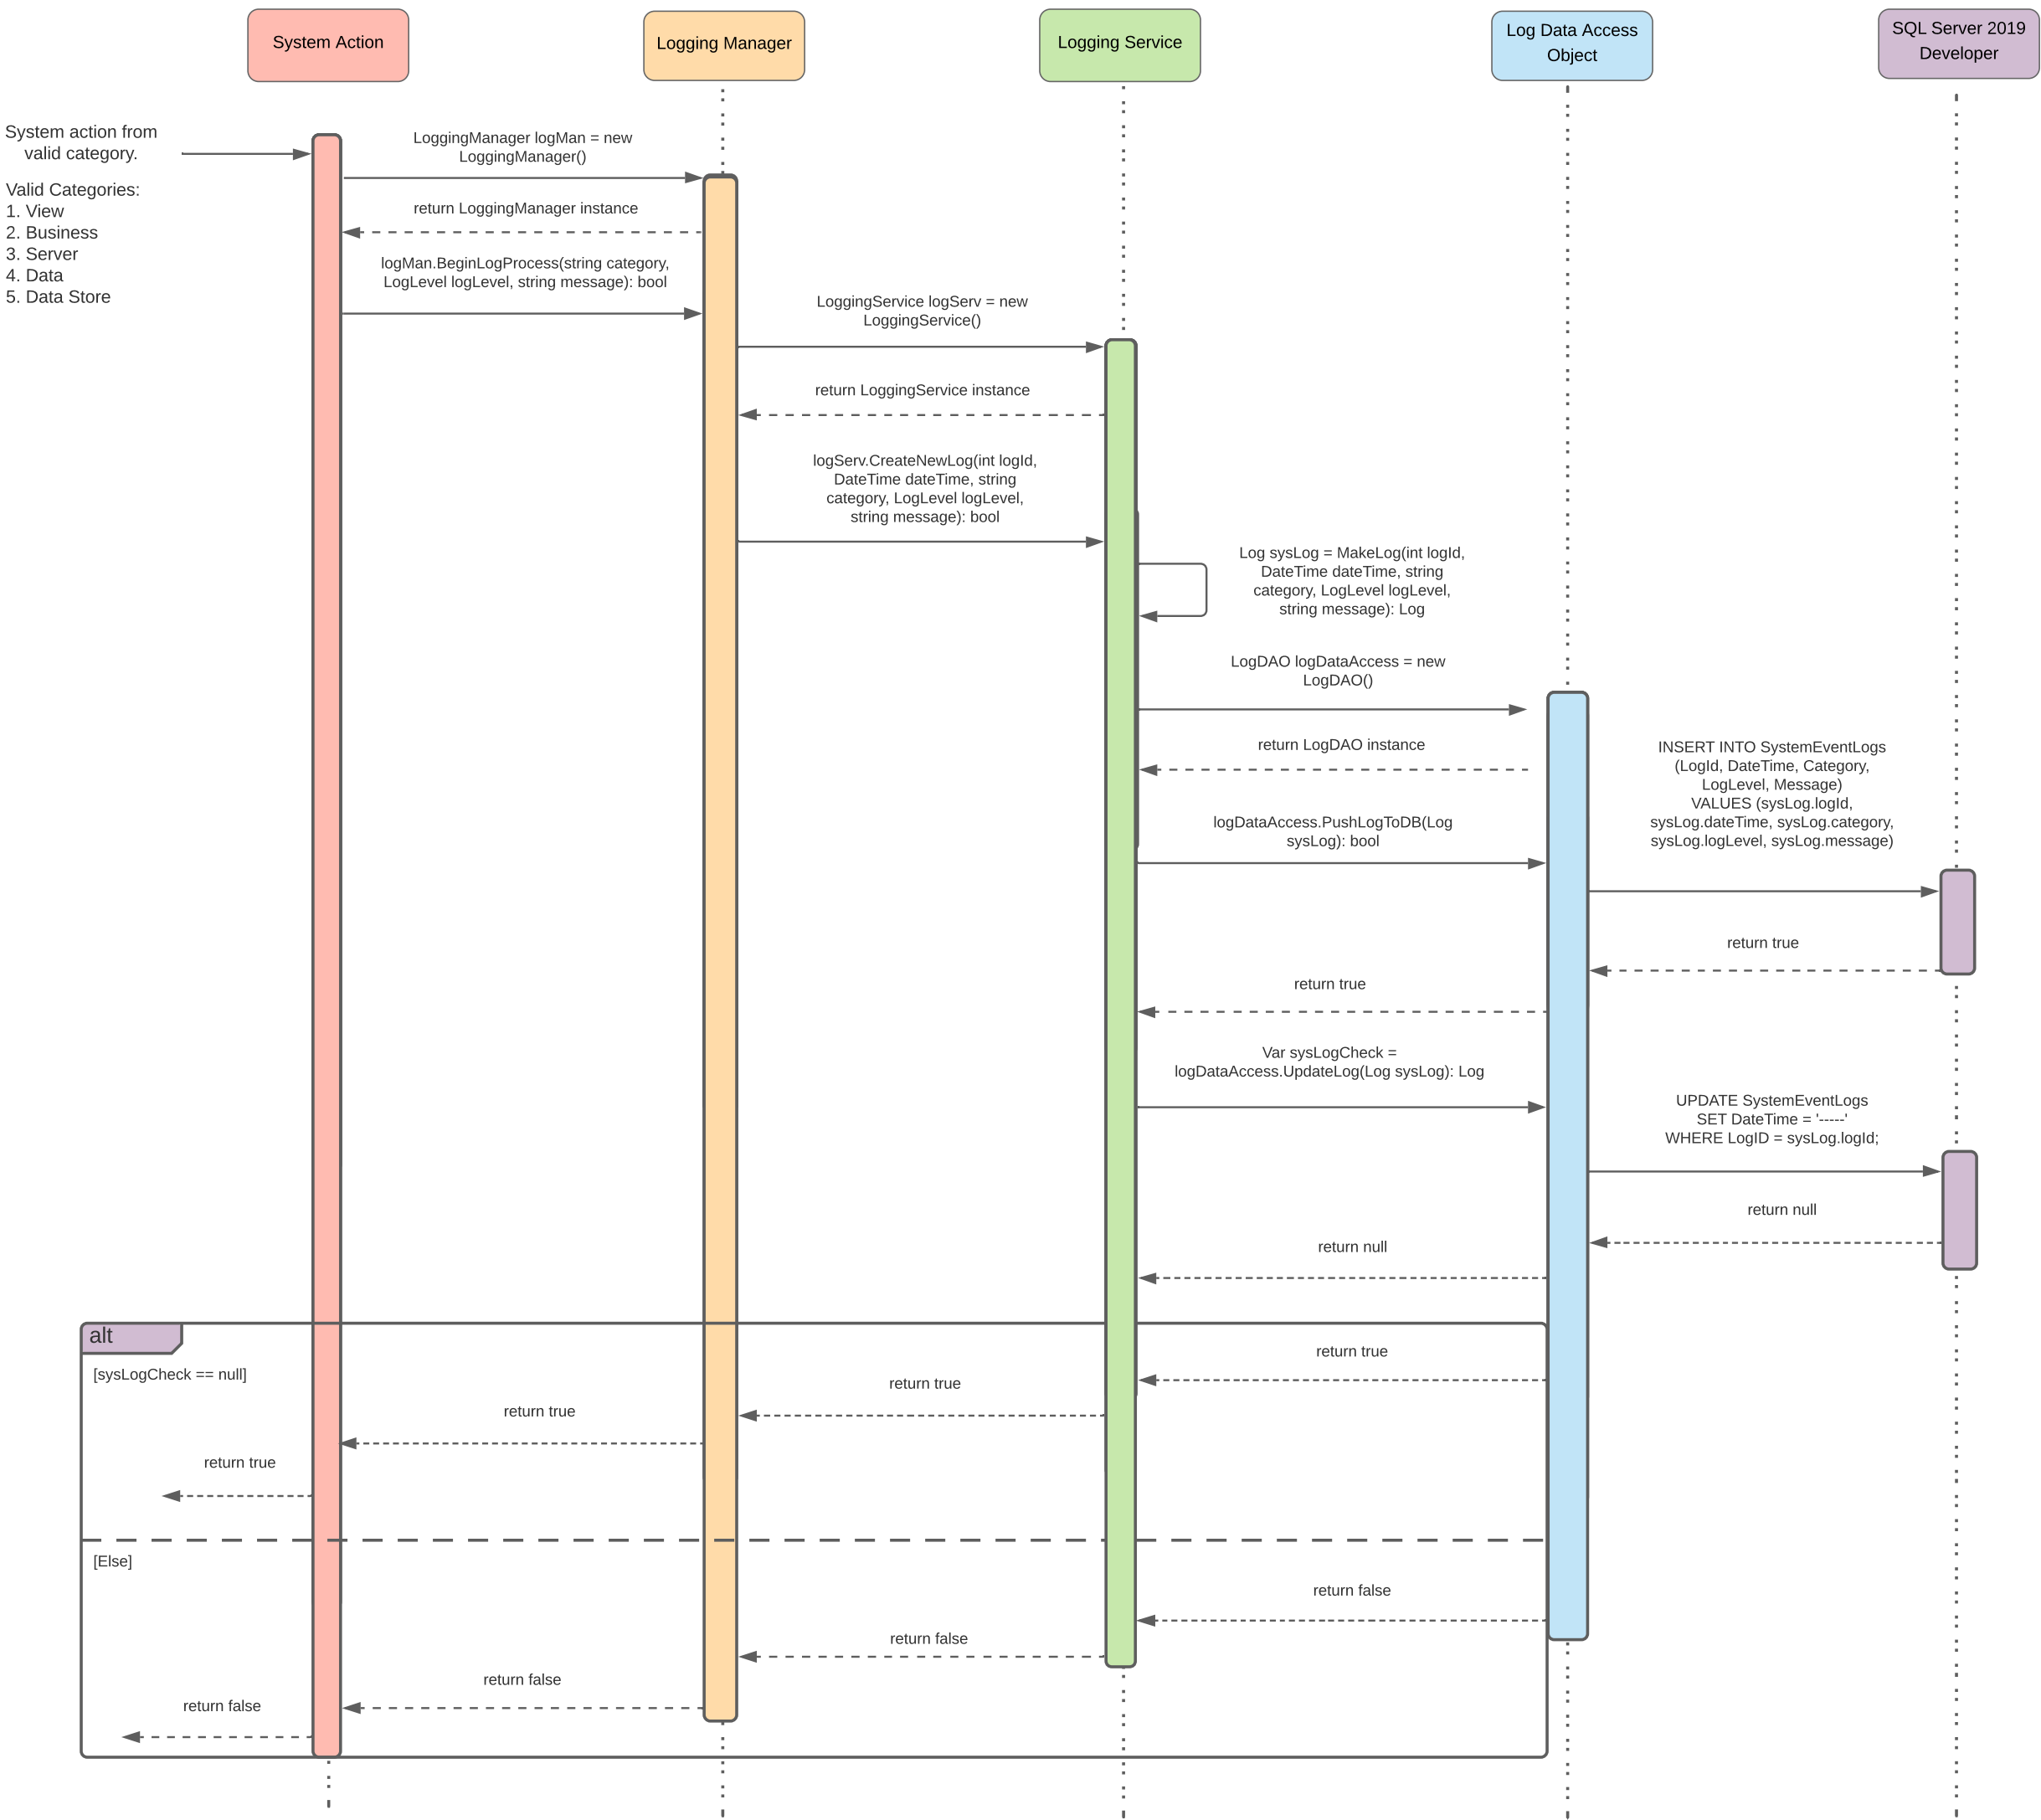

Failure Case 4: The logging process completes within 5 seconds,
but did not accurately save the events to the persistent data store
(i.e. timestamp, log level, category, message, etc.)
(System Events)

Failure Case 4: The logging process completes within 5 seconds,
but did not accurately save the events to the persistent data store
(i.e. timestamp, log level, category, message, etc.)
(User Events)

Failure Case 5: Previously saved
log entries are modifiable
(System Events)

Failure Case 5: Previously saved
log entries are modifiable
(User Events)

